

Patrick Guerriero, President of Log Cabin Republicans

Gay & Republican?

Making Space for Diversity in Conservative Politics

Thursday, January 27, 7pm, Richard White Auditorium, Duke East Campus

Patrick Guerriero, President of Log Cabin Republicans, will discuss the short- and long-term impact of anti-gay marriage amendments and the need for inclusion both in the Republican Party and in general political discourse. For more information about Mr. Guerriero and the Log Cabin Republicans organization, visit <http://www.logcabin.org/logcabin/about.html>.

Sponsors include: DukeOUT, Political Science Department, the University Fund, the University Union, the Graduate and Professional Student Council, Duke Law Republicans, OutLaw, the Fuqua School Gay, Lesbian, and Straight Alliance, OutLaw, the Duke Bar Association, Counseling and Psychological Services, the Triangle Log Cabin Republicans, AQUADuke, and the Sanford Institute for Public Policy. Directions at <http://www.duke.edu/web/film/directions/Direast.html>. Free parking is available on-site.