

Benjamin Kastan
Assistant General Counsel, Cyber
National Security Agency

Ben Kastan is the Assistant General Counsel for Cyber and Chief of the Cyber Unit within the National Security Agency (NSA) Office of General Counsel (OGC), Operational Support Practice Group. He leads a team of military and civilian attorneys who provide day-to-day operational legal advice and counsel to NSA personnel around the world concerning the exploitation of computer networks for foreign intelligence purposes, NSA's relationship with USCYBERCOM, international law relating to cyber operations, and the full spectrum of NSA's cybersecurity activities.

Ben began his NSA career in NSA OGC's Litigation Practice Group through the NSA Legal Honors Program. Prior to joining NSA, he clerked for the Honorable Donna Stroud on the North Carolina Court of Appeals. Ben received his J.D. and LL.M. in International and Comparative Law from Duke University School of Law.
